He went down to the dope shop one Saturday night,
When he knew the lights would be burning bright.
He must have smoked a dozen pills or more,
For when he woke up, he was on a foreign shore.

The Queen of Sheba was the first he met.
She called him lovey-dovey, and honey pet.
She gave him a great big automobile,
With a diamond headlight, and golden wheel

He landed with a splash in the river Nile.
A-ridin' a sea-goin' crocodile.
He winked at Cleopatra; she said, "ain't he a sight,
How about a date for next Saturday night?"

Down in Honolulu Willy fell into a trance,
Watching the dusky beauties do a hula-hula dance.
His sweetie got in jail, and Willy sure did shout
When he got the news that she had wiggled out.

Down in Monte Carlo he won every bet,
Made a million dollars playin' roulette,
He broke the Czar of Russia; what a joke!
So Willie took another pill, and rolled another smoke.

He went to Turkey by special request;
Stayed seven years as the Sultan's guest.
But when he got in with that harem crew,
What was a poor fellow like Willy to do?

He had a million cattle, and he had a million sheep;
He had a million vessels on the ocean deep;
He had a million dollars all in nickels and dimes;
Well--he knew it cause he'd counted it a thousand times.

He landed in New York one evening late.
He asked his sugar for an after date;
He started to kiss her, and she started to pout
When - Bingity! Bang! and the dope gave out.
